

Cunesoft awarded to be part of the 10 fastest growing compliance companies 2017

Munich, Germany

26th October 2017

Cunesoft, the Munich-headquartered global leader for intelligent regulatory solutions to the life sciences industry, is proud to announce that it has been named by Silicon Review to be among the 10 fastest growing compliance companies in 2017.

Founded in 2013, Cunesoft currently has more than 40 customers globally in the area of pharmaceuticals, consumer product goods, generics, biotechs, clinical research organizations, API producers and regulatory services organizations. Each of the customers has implemented the cloud-based Cunesoft Regulatory Operations software system to better manage their compliance requirements.

The highly recognized magazine “Silicon Review” acknowledged Cunesoft’s accomplishments and awarded the company with a place in the 10 fastest growing compliance companies 2017.

The award is based on the voting of industry experts who have a deep understanding of compliance and its difficult requirements.

Rainer Schwarz (CEO – Cunesoft GmbH) states “2017 is a year with tremendous growth. Our mission is to deliver high quality, intelligent and easy to use compliance solutions. We use smart technology that introduces immediate process savings for every client. Our private SaaS business model helps to offer an attractive cost model for our customers. On behalf of the whole Cunesoft team, I would like to thank Silicon Review for this award. “
